

MAEA Offers Information Technology and Manufacturing Process Consulting

*Nathan Andrews, MBA –
IT Professional and Proprietor*

- Nathan has been with MAEA for the past three years as our on-staff IT professional on instructor. We are now introducing Nathan to our members as a Consultant as well. Nathan has a wealth of experience in the manufacturing environment holding positions with Thomson Consumer Electronics (RCA), Lucent Technologies, and Agility Communications.
- He has earned a B.S. in Electrical Engineering, and a Minor in Speech Communications from The Pennsylvania State University. He also earned a Master of Business Administration degree from Penn State as Well. he is also the sole proprietor of his own IT Company, PC-Patch-Up.

Nathan is available to assist your company by providing the following services:

- Conduct on-site, hands-on computer trainings for a variety of courses including Microsoft Word, Excel, and Access.
- Provide information technology consulting in regards to hardware, software, and programming needs.
- Perform manufacturing gap assessments within manufacturing systems and recommend implementation strategies.
- Conduct training and data gathering in regards to implementing Lean Manufacturing and specific methods as 5S, Six Sigma ideas, SMED, cellular manufacturing, Kanban, and Kaizen.
- Propose factory modeling and physical design layout to improve efficiencies.
- Execute improvement strategies and coordinate efforts of root cause analysis within manufacturing environments.
- Training programs include:
 - ✓ Hands-on Microsoft Word, Excel, Access, PowerPoint, QuickBooks, and Microsoft Project.
 - ✓ Executive Coaching and Executive Presentation Skills,
 - ✓ Internal Auditing
 - ✓ Root Cause Analysis
 - ✓ 5S and Value Stream Mapping
 - ✓ Vendor Qualifications

For more information, please contact Chris Robbins at 570-622-0992 or e-mail crobbs@maea.biz!