

MAEA Offers NEW Supply Chain Management/Procurement Consulting Services

Nathan Andrews, MBA – MAEA Instructor and Consultant

Nathan is available to assist your organization in all levels regards Procurement and Supply Chain Management. He can assist in both the tactical and procedural aspects, and also in the long-term strategic planning. The savings realized directly affect an organizations bottom-line and profitability. He has earned a B.S. in Electrical Engineering, and a Minor in Speech Communications from The Pennsylvania State University. He also earned a Master of Business Administration degree from Penn State. His background is extremely intensive in both procurement and supply chain management before becoming a sole proprietor of his own IT company, PC-Patch-Up.

Areas of Expertise Include:

- ✚ Strategic Cost Management
- ✚ Negotiations
- ✚ Vendor Qualifications
- ✚ Inventory Management
- ✚ SKU Review
- ✚ Production Planning
- ✚ Logistics and Transportation

For more information on this great new service, please contact Chris Robbins at 570-622-0992 or crobbins@maea.biz.